

Data Transparency Winter Event 2023

PHUSE would like to thank all presenters that took part in the Data Transparency Winter Event 2023. If you did not get the chance to attend the event, click the titles below to view the presentations. All recordings are available on the PHUSE Archive.

Date	Presentation	Author(s)
Day 1 7 February	EU CTR Implementation Through CTIS – A Qualitative Analysis of the Published CTAs	Shalini Dwivedi, Krystelis
	Five-step Inspection Readiness	Thomas Wicks, Informa
	The FDA's Role in ClinicalTrials.gov Reporting	Laurie Muldowney, FDA
	Clinical Trial Transparency and the EU CTR: Preparing Your Plain Language Summaries and Lay Protocol Synopses for 2023 and Beyond	Dan Bilodeau, ICON
Day 2 8 February	Evaluation of the Privacy Risks in Synthetic Clinical Trial Datasets	Xi Fang, Replica Analytics & Samer El Kababji, University of Ottawa
	Going Synthetic: How Well Can We Imitate Real-World Data?	Oliver Dewhirst, Exploristics
	The European Health Data Space: Vision and Reality?	Nigel Hughes, Johnson & Johnson
	Synthetic Data	Gabriele Oliva, BIP UK & Sebastiano Sacconi, Aindo
Day 3 9 February	Privacy Considerations in Genomics Data	David Copeland, Privacy Hub by Datavant
	Why is CCI/CBI always a Painful Experience?	Cathal Gallagher, Instem
	Consistent Disclosure of Estimands to Improve Medical Research	Roelof Maarten van Dijk & Edith Küpper, Staburo
	How to get all Clinical Trials Reported - Lessons from the UK Experience	Till Bruckner, TranspariMED

Sponsors

Past Events

Want to catch up on past events?

The content is available on demand from the PHUSE Archive.
Alternatively, you can read the high-level summaries for each event on the Working Groups Events Archive page.